COLLECTORIC PRELIMINARY CLEADING OF CONTENT

1. The controversy over ownership of the stock of the Polish Bank in Buenos Aires is still unsettled, and the matter rests with the Argentine courts. Waclaw Konderski, Polish National Bank official who is now in Buenos Aires with the Polish commercial mission, hopes to have the controversy adjusted by the time the Polish-Argentine trade agreement is signed. He plans to obtain a title to most of the stock for the Polish National Bank.
2. Julio Nowinski, President of the Bank, maintains his position through the Warsaw government's fear that he might defect for opportunistic reasons and testify against Warsaw interests in the stock ownership controversy.
